EVIDENCE AGAINST HAYES.

SEEKING TO CONVICT HIM OF FORGERY.

THE REPUTED HUSBAND OF MISS FULLER ON

TRIAL IN GENERAL SESSIONS. Part II of the Court of General Sessions was a centre of interest yesterday, when the trial of Colonel W. E. Hayes, the lawyer, on a charge of perjury was begun. The defendant came into public notice not long ago as the financial agent and reputed husband of Miss Loie Fuller, the dancer and actress. Some people in the courtroom asked that Miss Fuller be pointed out to them, ignorant of the fact that she is now in any prejudice in the case. He replied: "Only that

The present charge, however, is not connected with at on which Miss Fuller had Colonel Hayes arrested, is indictment alleges that the prisoner made a faise fidavit on April 15, 1891, in connection with a suit the Supreme Court of Monroe County, at Rochester The action was brought by Miss Annie M. Kenting to cover $2,000 and interest and costs, on a promissor note dated October 27, 1887. Hayes, it was declared, signed the note, which was to be paid in two years.

Early in 1891 the suit was decided in favor o Miss Keating by default. The sum of $2,319 16 was ded to her. Ex State Senator Donald McNaughton was her counsel. On April 15, of that year. Hayes, the indictment says, made an affidavit on which to bese a motion to vacate the judgment. This document denied that he had given the woman his note, hat he owed her a dollar and that he was in this city on the date which the paper bore. The Colonel declared that he was in Florida from September 1, 1887, to May 1, 1888. The prosecution says that

Colonel Hayes managed to break the routine of the ial several times. While the talesmen were being

A MURDERER DIES BY ELECTRICITY.

Dannemora, N. Y., Jan. 16 .- Kornel Loth, a Hungarian, twenty-six years of age, met death by elec-tricity at 11:57 o'clock this morning. As he was being strapped to the chair, he said: "Take it easy." right hand and the State electrician at the lever sent 1,725 volts into the victim. The body stiffened up against the straps almost imperceptibly, and as, in accordance with the new idea, the voltage was de-creased it assumed its normal attitude. The first con-tact was fifty seconds. An interval of five seconds clapsed during which there was not the slightest in-dication of life, not even a twitch of the muscles, and then Dr. Ransom again raised his hand. The elecirician responded and the body stiffened up against the straps once more, the electrician reducing the current until finally it ceased altogether. The second contact lasted three seconds. Dr. Ransom and the lectrician Davis stated that while there was the appearance of two shocks it was really only one, the current being gradual to a minimum, and then turned on for a few seconds at its maximum before shutting

CHARGES AGAINST HENRY PHILLIPS.

Judge Barrett, of the Supreme Court, has granted in a suit brought by Ernest Adler to recover $1,200 for goods sold. Adler charges that Phillips, who has a real-estate office at No. 220 1-2 West Four tegeth-st., has not been doing a legitimate business. An affidavit by Emile W. Weber, who lives at No 265 West Twenty-third st., who was employed by Phillips from November 28 to December 24, 1862, alleges that Phillips did no real estate business while he was in his employ. He says that Phillips was accustomed to buy jewelry on credit, without in tending to pay for it, and then pawn it. He pawned a lot worth $5,000 at H. Schnitzer's pawnshop, at No. 143 Bowery, for $3,000. He says that Phillips said that he had sufficient political influence to prevent his being punished if his creditors peshed him. Deputy Sheriff Carraher has attached the jewelry at schultzer's pawnshop.

Schneider whe tional manner to front of their house in a fashionable part of the city one Sunday evening about a year ago, and whose wealthy relatives are exhausting every effort to save him from the gallows, was in court this morning for examination as to his sanity. His ex-cention was fixed for January 20. Counsel filed a motion for postponement, alleging insanity. They submitted the affidavit of Dr. McWilliams, the physician of the jall, and a letter from Colonel Burke, the warden of the jall, both of whom think Schneider Insane. It is probable that at least a temporary stay of execution will be obtained by these proceedings.
